HIGHLAND AVENUE NIGHT CLOSURE TO EXTEND THROUGH MAY

Highland Avenue will continue to be closed at night between Riverside Avenue in Rialto and Macy Street in San Bernardino through the month of May. The closure will be in place Monday through Friday from 8 p.m. to 5 a.m.

The closure will allow Route 210 construction crews to excavate and haul fill material from the Vulcan Plant on Highland Avenue. The night work will prevent disruption to traffic during peak daytime travel hours.

The following detours have been established:

- ▶ Westbound drivers will take California Street south to Baseline Road, travel west on Baseline to Riverside Avenue and then head north to Riverside.
- ▶ Eastbound drivers will take Riverside Avenue south to Baseline Road, travel east on Baseline to California Street and then head north on California.

Please proceed with caution when traveling around or through the Route 210 construction areas. Remember during construction, Safety: It's no accident!
